

Greetings from the BerZuBa dungeon, where Mis-Management have been storing our cold, bloody limbs for the past year, plotting this weekend's event. Please read the following with your best eyeball and get ready for some gruesome fun, alien-cowpeople style!

Getting there: once your in Switzerland, consult www.sbb.ch and look for connections to "Schönried Bahnhof". The walk to the venue will be marked and is about 1km long. By car, the address is: Hubelstrasse 83 / 3778 Schönried.

Rooms: rooms will be assigned; we're trying to make sure everyone gets a good set up. Please do NOT claim a room when Mis-Management isn't looking. If you arrive early, we suggest heading to nearby Gstaad where you can try to spot exiled celebrities or get kicked out of a swanky bar.

What to bring:

- A drinking vessel if you have one, not glass!!!!!!
- A lanyard for your nametag (something to hang around your neck and attach the tag to)
- Earplugs
- A towel for drying off after a shower (please do!)
- Pain relievers for your hangovers
- A costume: Cowpeople & Aliens!
- Bedding: you don't need to bring anything; the venue provides everything... unless you've got a fetish with sleeping in the bellies of fictional sci-fi beasts of burden. Then you're on your own.
- House shoes: something for your feet in the venue other than your muddy running shoes.
